Tasting notes

The wine is aged for 18 months in French oak barrels and matured a minimum of 6 months in bottle before release and is known to age incredibly well. 2000 is recognised as being a 'very good vintage in Tuscany' and at a Super-Tuscan tasting hosted in New York in 2004 by the Wine Advocate the Giusto di Notri 2000 was voted the 4th best wine of the vintage noting it offered 'more dimensions than any other wine' and concluding that 'Overall, one of the best; a youthful, delicious, dense, complex wine that is perfectly in balance'.

About the producer

Founded in 1984, Tua Rita was instrumental in establishing the 'cult' status of the earliest Super Tuscans. Nestled in the 'metalliferous hills' of the Maremma in the coastal region of Tuscany, the original plot of 2 hectares has now grown to 30 and Tua Rita have carved out a reputation for being some of the best producers of Cabernet and Merlot in Tuscany. Today, second generation winemaker Stefano Frascolla continues to push the boundaries of Italian wine, experimenting with new varieties and techniques, and recent releases of these wines are the best they have ever been.
