Tasting notes

A wine of real class and verve. A lively nose brimming with raspberry, blackcurrant and cherry with a hint of something more savoury underneath. The palate has superb concentration, plenty of crunchy black fruit mingles with sweet herbs, spices and a savoury leather touch. All of this is underpinned by a bracing freshness and smooth mouth-filling structure. Really quite delicious, it's the perfect balance of complexity and approachability. Enjoyable now or has the legs to age for another seven years.
