Tasting notes

This wine combines ripe yellow apple and greengage fruit characters on the nose and palate with a lovely, mineral tension and lively, refreshing acidity. It has good length and depth and will be delicious for drinking from release and over the next five years. Drink from 2013.

About the producer

Bernard Mollard always comes across as a remarkably relaxed man, which is not a common trait for a fruit farmer! His jovial demeanour and unpretentious manner always make for an enjoyable visit and his wines are similarly friendly and inviting. Bernard makes no apology for making wines to enjoy in their youth and his Chassagne's have been hugely popular with our customers for many years now.
