Tasting notes

More savoury aromas with cedar and some leafy notes. Good complexity on the palate with succulent fruit flavours intermingled with cedar ,spice and some vegetal notes. Perfectly balanced with excellent length

About the producer

In 1991, La Rioja Alta branched south into the barren plateau of Ribera del Duero. After intensive analysis, they settled on a plot in Anguix near Burgos, an area which Tim Atkin MW describes as the home of “most of the best wines” in Ribera del Duero. This Estate features vineyards at 700-800m above sea level, a state-of-the-art winery completed in 2000, and a solar farm to provide sustainable energy for the winery.
