

2003 Viña Alberdi Reserva

La Rioja Alta S.A., Rioja Wine Region, Spain

Product details

Vintage:	2003	Drinking:	2017
Producer:	La Rioja Alta S.A.	Alcohol:
Region:	Rioja Wine Region	Variety:
Country:	Spain

Tasting notes

Red cherries, wild strawberries and spice on the nose with a note of balsamic. Full-bodied, rich red cherry flavours with cinnamon spice and licorice. Rounded and smooth and with a long finish.

About the producer

Formed by five families in the late 19th century, the La Rioja Alta S.A. winery is one of the most iconic names in Fine Wine, and a benchmark for the traditional style of Rioja. Their Tempranillo-led reds are aged for remarkably long periods in barrels from the producer's cooperage, and they are one of the last remaining producers to rack their wines by hand and by candlelight – which they do every six months. While they always upheld standards and tradition, La Rioja Alta S.A. never stopped experimenting and pushing for better quality, offering some of the purest, more precise expressions of Tempranillo in the world.

