About the producer

In the 17th century, the vineyard belonged to the Abbé Raymond de Sèze, who built the château as it stands today in 1745. In 1850, Raymond Troplong took over Mondot and turned into a 33-hectare estate, unchanged to this very day. Edouard Troplong, his nephew and successor, added the name Troplong to the estate before he sold it. The château entered its modern age with the Valette family. Alexandre Valette, a Parisian vintner, bought the estate crafted by Raymond Troplong. In 1980 Alexandre's great grand daughter, Christine, took over the estate and was joined, 10 years later, by her husband, Xavier Pariente. Together they continued to improve and embellish the vineyard, cellar and château.

This hard work and their effort proved to worthwhile when in 2006 Troplong Mondot was awarded 1er Grand Cru Classé status.
