Tasting notes

From an old vine parcel in Comblanchien, the nose is pure rose petal and berry Pinot fruit. Persistent red berry fruit and mineral notes continue across a very pure and medium bodied palate. Relatively delicate with a supple structure and bold intensity of fruit. Gentle oak and spice nuances round off the wine. Outstanding value for money and really classical. Drink from 2009.

About the producer

In 1997 Jean-Marc Millot took control of his own Domaine but it has taken a further decade to get to the level that he wants to be at. His style favours fruit-driven, fresh wines over wines of power and force. His wines have quickly become a well-kept secret amongst those who have discovered them.
