Tasting notes

Bold oak and dark fruits nose. Really rich, ripe entry - plenty of intensity and structure but also powerful and persistent black fruits and minerals. This is a broad shouldered, full-bodied wine with tremendous potential. Brilliantly expressive of its terroir. Drink from 2014

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic domaines of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
