Tasting notes

---

A very shy nose but a really piercing, lively palate - intensely mineral and structured. There is a real iron fist here but the underlying bramble and morello cherry fruit is all there. Power and intensity gives a haunting quality to the wine on the finish. Potentially very fine Vougeot in what is often a variable Grand Cru. Drink from 2013.

About the producer

With a Domaine that was established at the end of the 18th century, Etienne Grivot has often felt the weight of history when he joined his father Jean in 1982. 1993 marked a turning point and since then the trajectory of Domaine Grivot has been nothing but upwards. Today, a more mellowed and confident Etienne is one of the most respected figures in the region, producing wines of purity, freshness and precision year-in, year-out.
