Tasting notes

This is a beautiful Chambolle, very typical of the village with a lovely pure robe, silky tannins and delicate fragrance. “The longer growing season really helped this to attain full ripeness”, notes Christophe, and although this is already drinking well there is plenty left in the tank. Drink from 2010.

About the producer

Christophe Roumier still delights in the simple, shared discovery of a new vintage in the same way that he always has, zipping around from cask to cask and debating the wine's merits as if it was his first time. The Roumier experience is infectious even before raising the glass to the lips but these are wines that transcend the merely "interesting" or "intriguing", this is a serious, world-class estate whose wines are rightfully prized.
