Tasting notes

A straight and direct nose of pear and apple with zippy, clean, pure acidity on the palate and a vital feel. This is dancing on the palate today, leaving little touches of colour as it moves. There is again the promise of a fine future. Drink from 2011.

About the producer

One producer who expresses more than others the spirit of Chassagne-Montrachet. With pure, elegant wines that are always approachable in youth but have an incredible capacity of ageing and developing in the cellar for decades. Jean-Marc and Claudine Blain consistently produce some exemplary wines at village level and release some of the most sought-after Grand Crus from their tiny holdings of Caillerets.
