Tasting notes

---

A nose of sweet cherry tobacco and a flowing, generous, even voluptuous texture on the palate. This is rounded and not at all austere as it has been in the past. Quite remarkable in fact. A note of wild rosehip and a pleasing medicinal scent add extra intrigue. A change in style for certain and a pleasure to see such definition and finesse here. Drink from 2014.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
