Tasting notes

Wild fruit and spice with an earthy quality. There is more clay and rock in this vineyard and the wine is always a little heavier than the Chambolles with extra vigour but not the same refinement in its youth. A few years of bottle age should see it mellow into something rather handsome, allowing the mineral elements to come out and express themselves fully. Drink from 2011.

About the producer

Christophe Roumier still delights in the simple, shared discovery of a new vintage in the same way that he always has, zipping around from cask to cask and debating the wine's merits as if it was his first time. The Roumier experience is infectious even before raising the glass to the lips but these are wines that transcend the merely "interesting" or "intriguing", this is a serious, world-class estate whose wines are rightfully prized.
