Tasting notes

Firm and lightly toasty, with smoky almond and pure black cherry notes riding the fine, satiny mousse, while well-knit acidity and a chalky, mineral-tinged underpinning lends this structure and density. Disgorged June 2013. Drink now through 2029.

93 Points, Wine Spectator

About the producer

Stretching over 14 ha of vines in the heart of Vallée de la Marne, Champagne Geoffroy is renowned for Pinot Noir and Pinot Meunier focused champagnes of incredible freshness and authenticity. Since the 17th century, the family has been growing grapes but only in the 1950s did the family start vinifying their grapes. Cumières remains the heart of the house. From his joyous Expression NV to a one of a kind Rosé de Saignée to the still Pinot Noir, if you like Blanc de Noirs sparkling wines, Champagne Geoffroy is not to be missed.
