Tasting notes

Brilliant, rich and golden, this Moelleux is mouth-wateringly appealing; redolent with hedonistic peach, poached pear and toffee apple. There is incredible concentration with a syrup-like texture that is full-bodied but lean and lifted. A thrilling dart of acidity gives this wine a delicacy that crackles with energy as layers of gardenia, quince, ripe citrus and honey linger on the on the impeccably accomplished finish. Superb.

About the producer

Few producers can claim a level of influence to almost identify with their appellation – one of those is Domaine Huet. This iconic estate has been one of the standard-bearers of Vouvray since 1928. A true pioneer, Gaston Huet was one of the first vignerons to adopt biodynamic practices and to focus on single-vineyard bottlings. Remaining true to the philosophy of the founders, Sarah Hwang and Jean-Bertrand Berthomé continue to craft superbly long-lived Chenin Blanc from their three vineyards. From lively sparkling to unctuous Moelleux, the Domaine Huet range is the most extraordinary way to venture into Vouvray.
