Tasting notes

Goodness only knows how Nicolas has managed to snare a little Bienvenues, a rare Grand Cru at the best of times. Soft, ripe and fragrant on the nose with excellent definition on the palate, this is already teasing, effortlessly putting a smile on the face of all those who encounter it. Drink from 2013.

About the producer

Spending any time with Nicolas Potel in Burgundy can't help but to make even the most ardent of critics a lifelong convert. Nicolas is another man of boundless energy but his approach is very organic, adhering to the natural rhythms wherever possible. Such an unforced, careful, natural and sensitive approach is reflected perfectly in his wine and Nicolas has brought a breath of fresh air to Burgundy over the last decade and more. Quite simply, he remains one of Burgundy's brightest talents.
