Tasting notes

A refined wine with magnificent definition and length, the aromas in the glass open to reveal layers of dark blackberry fruit with hints of exotic spices and herbs. Fine tannins on the palate blend seamlessly with ripe red berry and black cherry flavours balanced by a vibrant acidity which runs right through. Darker, more complex fruit characters open out as the wine develops and there is an elegant, mineral note on the finish. This is a concentrated, harmonious and complex wine which will be delicious to drink in the next few years. Drink 2014 ? 2020.
