Tasting notes

Grown on very steep, south-facing slopes, this is classic Chablis with pure almost sweet fruit flavours and a bracing, mineral intensity. The cuvée may not be as well known as Valmur or Les Clos but it suffers nothing by comparison and is often one of the finest in the Fèvre line up. The 2008 is a particular success. Drink 2014-2020+.

About the producer

William Fèvre is one of Chablis's most respected domaines and is credited with putting this region of Chardonnay vines, William began purchasing parcels of the region's Premier and Grand Cru vineyards that had fallen out of fashion. He quickly grew the estate to an impressive 50 hectares and established a fine reputation for his white Burgundy. He retired in 1998 and sold the estate to négociant Bouchard, who installed Didier Séguier as winemaker.
