Tasting notes

Ripe notes of quince, mirabelle plums and orchard fruits, this is full and rounded with a stylish cut, helped by its seam of acidity running through it. On the palate, the excitement continues with impressive but well-directed power driving the wine through to a distinguished finish. Fine potential and knocking on the door of the Grand Crus once again. Drink from 2013.

About the producer

One producer who expresses more than others the spirit of Chassagne-Montrachet. With pure, elegant wines that are always approachable in youth but have an incredible capacity of ageing and developing in the cellar for decades. Jean-Marc and Claudine Blain consistently produce some exemplary wines at village level and release some of the most sought-after Grand Crus from their tiny holdings of Caillerets.
