Tasting notes

This is once again the star 1er Cru in the line-up and one of the most original and fascinating wines of Gevrey. A monopole of Faiveley in a tiny, rocky 0.5ha plot next to Ruchottes-Chambertin, this shows notes of rose petal, nectarine and summer fruit on the nose with a beautifully polished palate with dissolved minerality and a saline edge. Distinguished and with plenty of energy, this is racy and a clear demonstration of the precision now being found at Faiveley. Drink from 2013.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
