

2008 Tokaji Aszu 5 Puttonyos

Chateau Dereszla, Tokaj, Hungary

Product details

Vintage:	2008	Drinking:	2017
Producer:	Chateau Dereszla	Alcohol:
Region:	Tokaj	Variety:
Country:	Hungary

Tasting notes

A luscious and inviting Tokaji with lifted aromas of oranges, marmalade, apricot and honeycomb. Terrifically complex and aromatic. The palate is just as impressive with a voluptuous, silky mouthfeel and profound flavours of pithy marmalade, rich tangerine and sweet honey. Bracing acidity lift all of this luscious sweetness to make a surprisingly refreshing and irresistible dessert wine.

About the producer

Situated in the heart of the Tokaj region, the origins of Chateau Dereszla can be traced back to the 18th century. The Estate owns 27 hectares spread across the designated "Grand Cru" area, and the large diversity of soils throughout these vineyard holdings is a crucial factor in the complexity of their wines. The historic cellars were fully renovated in 2003 and equipped with state-of-the-art winemaking technology. The winemaking team has a long-established expertise in vinification, as well as sharing a dedication to perfection and passion for the beautiful wines that they produce.

