Tasting notes

---

Rich liqueur fruits dominate the nose here. On the palate, this is far more masculine and sturdy but there is a sucrosity on the attack that allows a degree of accessibility. Everything else however points towards patience- the drive, the earthiness, the serious side of Volnay as opposed to the playful. All the while, the wine keeps moving but this will clearly be drinking really well after ten years in bottle and beyond. Drink from 2014.
