Tasting notes

As with all truly great wines, the Clos des Ducs is not easily summarized. It is a wine that demands time, respect and intelligence. For easy pleasures, be they flighty and fruity or rich and indulgent, look elsewhere. There is fabulous intensity to this wine, from the moment that you first discover its aromas, the subtlety of its scents. It hints at excitement but then withdraws, only to return with a different expression, a discreet change of tone. On the palate, the multi-layered millefeuille effect is truly mesmerizing, interlocking layers all perfectly in place but awaiting their moment to reveal. Noble, statuesque and magnificent, this is once again in a class of its own. Drink from 2015.

About the producer

This historic 15 hectare estate is without question the finest red wine estate in the Côte de Beaune. The legacy left by the late, great Jacques d'Angerville is being carried forward in the same authoritative, passionate and committed manner by his son, Guillaume, supported by his brother-in-law Rénaud de Villette and talented régisseur François Duvivier.
