Tasting notes

From a 0.44ha holding, high up on the slopes above Beaune. This is undeniable evidence of the quality of whites in Beaune when in the right hands. Ample stonefruits on the nose usher in a wine of great amiability, with a solid core of fruit on the palate again reflecting the generosity of the vintage. Then there is a transition as the fine acidity picks the pace up and carries a seam of minerals with it. Engaging and impressive.

About the producer

Domaine de Montille is one of Burgundy's greatest estates. The wines are made for ageing but in recent years, since Hubert's son Etienne has taken over, the Domaine has moved towards expressing greater aromatic potential in the wines. The Domaine has moved progressively towards organic and now biodynamic methods working in closer harmony with nature. The wines still benefit from ageing and develop an abundance of complexity as they mature.
