Tasting notes

At first a little smoky and closed. Fluid palate that is still embryonic. Wonderful tannic grip and structure and balance. There is lots of concentration, but the fruit is still a little reluctant to come out. Elegance is key!

17.5/20, Walter Speller MW, Jancisrobinson.com

About the producer

Stretching over a tiny 9 hectares, Il Marroneto is owned by the charismatic Alessandro Mori. Son of lawyer Giuseppe Mori, Alessandro gave up his law career to make Brunello full time in 1994. A self-proclaimed traditionalist, he believes Brunello should always be age-worthy and full of energy, supported by a hallmark vein of acidity. In this context, it is then not surprising that the wines of Il Marroneto are some of the most elegant and age-worthy Brunello in Montalcino, demonstrating extraordinary breeding and grace.
