Tasting notes

Creamy currants and cherries on the nose lure you in. On the palate, the experience truly begins with silky textures, a deep mineral thread, the wine tightly coiled around fine tannins and hanging on an immense, strapping frame. This is perfectly constructed, displaying control, precision, nobility and optimum balance. There are simply no faults here. 20 points 2019-2030+ 91CS :9M - 20

About the producer

Château Latour itself dates back to the 14th century but the start of its history producing wine really began with the arrival of the Ségur family who, for a time, were also owners of Lafite. Latour's vineyards are situated in the south of the Pauillac appellation, bordering St Julien and are nearer to the Gironde estuary than any other 1st Growth. The micro-climate afforded by its close proximity to the Gironde and the excellent drainage of the gravel soils, which are particularly deep here, contribute to the incredible elegance of the wines.
