Tasting notes

There is always a sense of completeness about Fèvre's Clos and this is no different. All of the elements are there: citric fruits with subtle stonefruits, gentle floral aromas and then the smoke, stones and crushed rocks that are so disitinctive in great Chablis. There is precision beside the power and a grand, stage-stealing finish that shows the pedigree. Another great Clos. Drink 2015-2025

About the producer

William Fèvre is one of Chablis's most respected domaines and is credited with putting this region of Chardonnay vines, William began purchasing parcels of the region's Premier and Grand Cru vineyards that had fallen out of fashion. He quickly grew the estate to an impressive 50 hectares and established a fine reputation for his white Burgundy. He retired in 1998 and sold the estate to négociant Bouchard, who installed Didier Séguier as winemaker.
