Tasting notes

A monopole of the Domaine in the heart of the village. Notes of ripe white and yellow stone fruits on the nose are kept in check by a strong mineral thread running through the wine and creating a happy, harmonious ensemble. This may broaden out a little more in bottle but today it shows good shape and enough restraint to earn praise even from purists.

About the producer

One producer who expresses more than others the spirit of Chassagne-Montrachet. With pure, elegant wines that are always approachable in youth but have an incredible capacity of ageing and developing in the cellar for decades. Jean-Marc and Claudine Blain consistently produce some exemplary wines at village level and release some of the most sought-after Grand Crus from their tiny holdings of Caillerets.
