Tasting notes

Cazetiers is one of Gevrey's top 1er Crus, sitting high on the same hillside as Clos St Jacques with a perfect easterly exposure. Always animated, this is a wine with heightened sensory appeal, its black fruit and gentle floral fragrances delivered with great finesse and intensity. Just enough tannin on the finish reminds you that this is something serious for the longer term but it is pretty sensational already.

About the producer

Spending any time with Nicolas Potel in Burgundy can't help but to make even the most ardent of critics a lifelong convert. Nicolas is another man of boundless energy but his approach is very organic, adhering to the natural rhythms wherever possible. Such an unforced, careful, natural and sensitive approach is reflected perfectly in his wine and Nicolas has brought a breath of fresh air to Burgundy over the last decade and more. Quite simply, he remains one of Burgundy's brightest talents.
