Tasting notes

The sandy, lighter soil found in the Cannubi vineyard lends a more perfumed style to this Barolo. That being said it still has prodigious tannic backbone and the hallmarks of a wine that will develop for a decade or more. Lifted aromas of black cherry, violets and spice waft from the glass and on the palate its structure is framed by sweet cherry, perfumed roses and earthy spice.

About the producer

When Claudio Fenocchio succeeded his father Giacomo at the helm of the family business in 1989, the debate between modernist and traditionalists in Barolo was at its most acute. He decided to opt for a third approach, something we can call radical traditionalism. His wines were celebrated for being impressively approachable in youth while getting even better with age. Claudio represents the 5th generation of the Fenocchio family crafting elegant, true Barolos that capture the soul of his vineyards. Far from resting on his laurels though, he continues to push boundaries of quality and innovation while respecting his family legacy.
