Tasting notes

As always this is a very appealing wine but the 2010 seems to have reached a new level, such is the purity of the sweet strawberry, red berry fruit and the wonderfully elegant, almost ethereal violet notes. Complex dark fruit aromas emerge in the background but this is essentially a very attractive and seductive wine. The palate has excellent definition with fine, seamless tannins which combine harmoniously with the sweet, delicate fruit. Hints of wild herbs and mocha coffee give further complexity and length.
