Tasting notes

An incredibly dense yet sophisticated wine which is packed full of rich flavours. Enticing red cherry and plum aromas are followed by layers of ripe blackcurrant and cassis fruit with notes of tobacco and exotic spices. Beautifully textured tannins blend seamlessly with the deep flavours and the fresh acidity. An outstanding success. Drink 2020 - 2038

About the producer

Bought by Jean Charles Cazes on the eve of the second world war, at the same time as he purchased Ormes de Pez, Chateau Lynch Bages has had an interesting history. Owned by the Dejean, Drouillard, Lynch, Cayrou and finally Cazes families since its wine making era began in the early 1700s, the estate has been run by the new generation Sylvie Cazes Regimbeau and Jean Charles Cazes since 2006. The 19th century vat room may have been retained intact as a reminder of times gone by, but the estate is now very forward looking and embraces modern technology. A team of 35 look after the daily management of the vineyard and sustainable, environmentally friendly policies are followed. In January 2010 Jean Michel Cazes received the 'Pionnier de l'œnotourisme' (Pioneer of Wine Tourism) prize, in recognition of the ongoing work to support the tourist trade and its positive impact on French wine growing regions.
