Tasting notes

---

A classic expression of Montée de Tonnerre. Flights of fancy on the nose, with sherbet, lime zest and orange flowers lifting out of the glass. Fine, stony minerality and a very pure, clean acidity create the perfect framework for the juicy fruit. Beautifully precise with great length. Over time some of the fruit power currently on show will settle down and this will develop into a subtle, precise delight. Drink 2014-2020.

About the producer

William Fèvre is one of Chablis's most respected domaines and is credited with putting this region of Chardonnay vines, William began purchasing parcels of the region's Premier and Grand Cru vineyards that had fallen out of fashion. He quickly grew the estate to an impressive 50 hectares and established a fine reputation for his white Burgundy. He retired in 1998 and sold the estate to négociant Bouchard, who installed Didier Séguier as winemaker.
