Tasting notes

Pascal's 0.5 holding of this famous Grand Cru is ideally situated in the upper sector of the vineyard, across the wall of Grand Echézeaux. Very long and incredibly complex, it has layers of sweet fruit aromas which mingle with notes of spice and leather and a refined mineral quality. There is a core of bright redcurrant fruit which gradually opens up in the glass to reveal deeper and darker fruits which are in perfect harmony with the fine grain tannins. The finish is very persistent and long, hinting at the greatness which will come with a few more years in bottle.
