Tasting notes

---

Complex, wild berry aromas with notes of flowers and herbs. On the palate there is an abundance of red forest fruits intermingled with truffle notes and a darker savoury character in the background, drawn together with fine tannins and refreshing acidity. This is an elegant, detailed wine which comes from a monopole of Domaine Faiveley, higher up on the slopes of Gevrey. Drink from 2014.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaines of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
