Tasting notes

A vibrant, spicy bouquet displaying aromas of leather, chocolate and perfume. The palate is rich and complex with ripe fruits, dark chocolate and earthy characters. This flavour profile is typical from this small block and is an example of the precious soils in the region which enable such incredible wines. Grilled lamb chops marinated in harissa. Plum glazed sirloin steak.

About the producer

Born in the 1990s through Drew Dowie and Norm Doole's frustration at having to send their fruit to other wineries to vinify, Dowie Doole came to set a precedent for McLaren Vale. The winery's range is an exploration of this region's terroirs and the many varieties that generations of grape growers have brought with them from Europe. A great marriage of tradition, innovation and a little rebel spirit can be found in all their cuvées. From complex Shiraz, a spicy Grenache and Tempranillo blend, to elegant Chenin Blanc, their range is one of the most interesting and contemporary in the region.
