Tasting notes

This attractive nose offers inviting notes of rich citrus fruits, a touch of butterscotch and a delicious hint of peach skin in the background. This wine is all about crispness and texture on the palate with an intriguing interplay between notes of dried tarragon and a delicate creaminess. Prickly green fruit lingers on the lively finish.

Drink from release.

About the producer

Domaine de Montille is one of Burgundy's greatest estates. The wines are made for ageing but in recent years, since Hubert's son Etienne has taken over, the Domaine has moved towards expressing greater aromatic potential in the wines. The Domaine has moved progressively towards organic and now biodynamic methods working in closer harmony with nature. The wines still benefit from ageing and develop an abundance of complexity as they mature.
