Tasting notes

Sparkling golden yellow. Bright and intense with lovely depth and complexity. Figs, apricots and nuances of brioche on the palate with superb balance and freshness. Vibrant and defined with a crisp finish.

About the producer

The Rapeneau family hail from the Marne region and have been specialists in the wine trade since early in the 19th Century. The House now owns a large expanse of vineyards planted with all three Champagne vines. Years of experience and expertise have resulted in the excellent champagnes that the Rapeneau family produce year after year.
