Tasting notes

This 100% Cabernet Franc displays refreshing dark raspberry notes with hints of liquorice and violets. On the palate it is medium bodied, pure dark red fruit with a firm tannic structure and refreshing acidity. This wine needs some time in the bottle to truly show its potential. Drink 2016-2025.

About the producer

Clau de Nell is the late Anne Claude Leflaive's property in the Loire Valley. The Estate was named after its previous Burgundian owners, Claude and Nelly, who originally bought the property back in 2000 in order to follow their dreams of producing biodynamic wine which was then frowned upon in Burgundy. These strict biodynamic principles are still followed both in the vineyard and the cellar. Anne Claude bought the Estate in 2008 and no wines were bottled commercially for a few years whilst the property was given the full Domaine Leflaive treatment.
