Tasting notes

In a difficult vintage for Margaux the Brane Cantenac 2011 stood out amongst its peers and was one of the few that displayed all of the classic hallmarks of its commune. A great nose of cedar, ripe black fruit, cigar box and real elegance gave way to a very pretty, restrained and 'proper' palate. Like the best in 2011 it is the great balance of acidity and rich tannin that makes this wine so texturally pleasing. A Bordeaux true to its roots.
