Tasting notes

---

Wonderfully refreshing and persistent with great length and depth. Lively lemon and lime aromas with elegant floral notes in the background are followed by an abundance of limes and tropical citrus fruit on the palate. On the finish, a mineral character intermingled with smoky, spicy notes gives further definition and complexity. This gorgeous wine is one of the finest whites of the vintage and while it will be delicious young it will also age well over the next 5 to 10 years. Drink 2013 - 2019.

About the producer

Bought by Jean Charles Cazes on the eve of the second world war, at the same time as he purchased Ormes de Pez, Chateau Lynch Bages has had an interesting history. Owned by the Dejean, Drouillard, Lynch, Cayrou and finally Cazes families since its wine making era began in the early 1700s, the estate has been run by the new generation Sylvie Cazes Regimbeau and Jean Charles Cazes since 2006. The 19th century vat room may have been retained intact as a reminder of times gone by, but the estate is now very forward looking and embraces modern technology. A team of 35 look after the daily management of the vineyard and sustainable, environmentally friendly policies are followed. In January 2010 Jean Michel Cazes received the 'Pionnier de l'œnotourisme' (Pioneer of Wine Tourism) prize, in recognition of the ongoing work to support the tourist trade and its positive impact on French wine growing regions.
