Tasting notes

Notes of apple, pear and flintstones on the nose, on the palate, there is fine quality of material on display and plenty of zip and vigour. The acidity is brisk and cleansing but without aggression and on the finish, the extra degree of length shows that a careful hand has ensured no deviation from its path. Focused, direct and with plenty more to give. Drink from 2014.

About the producer

One of the great estates in Burgundy, Domaine de Montille produces incredibly elegant and understated wines. Established by Hubert de Montille, who inherited a few Volnay vines in 1951, the estate now comprises 17 ha. The wines had a reputation for requiring a long time to reach maturity but under Étienne de Montille, with the help of Chef de Cave Brian Sieve, the aromatic complexity of the wines has been brought to the fore.
