Tasting notes

The Domaine has six parcels in Chambolle, with the most significant plots being high on the slopes to the South of the village, well exposed and ventilated. There is certainly a breeziness to this wine, with its crisp raspberry-accented fruit and its evident vitality. The tannins are delicate here and although the fruit is in the ascendant at the moment, there is good minerality beneath that will reveal more over time. This is as good as you will find for village Chambolle. Drink from 2014.
