Tasting notes

A more feminine style of Gevrey Chambertin, this wine is immediately appealing on the nose and on the palate. The bouquet is full of sweet strawberry, raspberry and wild lavender aromas. The palate expresses lively redcurrant and cassis fruits with a slight bramble, spice character on the finish balanced by mouthwatering freshness. This very attractive, integrated wine is a Faiveley monopole high on the slopes of Gevrey and is exclusive to Armit Wines. Drink from 2016.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
