Tasting notes

Straw-yellow, this excellent village Meursault again shows as well as a premier cru. The aromas are full of citrus and yellow stone fruits followed by a taste of ripe green apples with hints of white acacia and a chalky minerality on the finish. This is a delicious wine, perfect for early drinking from release.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach.
