Tasting notes

Produced from a small 0.8 hectare vineyard next to Vosne Romanée, this is an incredibly elegant wine, with a mixture of sweet red berry and black cherry fruits on the nose. The palate is full of dark brooding fruit flavours with detailed spice notes on the finish and a hint of liquorice. This is a harmonious, medium-weight wine which reflects its exceptional terroir. Drink from 2015.

About the producer

Nestled unassumingly on a quiet street in beautiful Nuits St Georges, Faiveley, headed by the suave and welcoming Erwan, is quite an operation. One of the truly great, historic Domaine of Burgundy, with stunning cellars and many glorious holdings from Gevrey to Pommard, via some brilliant Grands Crus, Erwan and his new team have everything that a Burgundian could desire. Traditionally, the Faiveley style was uncompromising but while still unquestionably making some of the longest-lived wines in the Côte, there is today far more finesse and precision in evidence, pointing to a more careful and up-to-date approach
