Tasting notes

The 2011 vintage saw Perlato del Bosco Rosso make a glorious return to its Sangiovese-only origins; one of the very few pure Sangiovese wines on the Tuscan coast. Pure, black fruit bursts from the glass with subtle highlights of earth, leather and smoke. The palate mirrors the intense, dark berries and adds heady aromas of fragrant herbs, flaunting its depth and complexity. This is an incredibly focused wine, with fine tannins and exceptional acidity providing wonderful balance and finesse. Drink from 2014-2021.

About the producer

Founded in 1984, Tua Rita was instrumental in establishing the 'cult' status of the earliest Super Tuscans. Nestled in the 'metalliferous hills' of the Maremma in the coastal region of Tuscany, the original plot of 2 hectares has now grown to 30 and Tua Rita have carved out a reputation for being some of the best producers of Cabernet and Merlot in Tuscany. Today, second generation winemaker Stefano Frascolla continues to push the boundaries of Italian wine, experimenting with new varieties and techniques, and recent releases of these wines are the best they have ever been.
