Tasting notes

An aromatic wine with a lovely floral bouquet combined with bright redcurrant fruit aromas. Darker, savoury notes open up in the glass. The palate is very expressive with lively redcurrant fruit flavours and a violet, floral character balanced by fine tannins and an energetic freshness which runs through to the finish. This vineyard is located halfway up a steep slope with a full southern exposure which gives the wines great personality. It will be delicious in a few years and has good ageing potential. Drink from 2014.

About the producer

Established in 1868, Domaine Simon Bize became a reference in Savigny-lès-Beaune under the stewardship of Patrick Bize. His meticulous care and attention to detail birthed crystalline wines of impressive elegance and poise. After his passing, his wife Chisa is now continuing the legacy of the Domaine and gifting wine lovers with wine that possesses a charming nature and friendliness in youth, and a remarkable ageing potential.
