Tasting notes

Falorca's white is always a prime example of balance in a white wine; fruit, oak and acidity come together in harmony and create a wine to be enjoyed on release and for years ahead. A majority Encruzado blend that offers ripe tropical fruit, crisp acidity and a beautifully opulent texture from time in new barriques. With very limited production this is a wine to snap up before it lands in the UK. A must try for lovers of white burgundy and white Rhône.
