Tasting notes

It's hard to follow a wine like Champans but once again the Clos des Ducs demands your attention from the moment it steps onto the stage and everything else is quickly forgotten. There is something effortless and commanding about this wine, endlessly fascinating as it offers glimpses of its potential on every turn and yet never goes so far as to reveal all. Here it is the taster who must do the work and time is an essential part of the process of understanding. If you seek a wine of intelligence, nobility, intrigue and layered intensity, then this is for you. Drink from 2020.

About the producer

This historic 15 hectare estate is without question the finest red wine estate in the Côte de Beaune. The legacy left by the late, great Jacques d'Angerville is being carried forward in the same authoritative, passionate and committed manner by his son, Guillaume, supported by his brother-in-law Rénaud de Villette and talented régisseur François Duvivier.
